

HSV262L : Human Services Practicum II

Building on skills and knowledge gained in Human Services Practicum I (HSV161L), students develop more advanced competencies as the basis for the learning experience and will be evaluated using criteria appropriate for second year students. Work at the practicum site, along with peer review, self-reflection, and disclosure, combine to create a structure that promotes and supports a deeper level of personal and professional growth.

Credits 5

Lab Hours 9

Class Hours 2

Prerequisites

HSV161L or Permission of Instructor