

MAR121L : Marine Maintenance and Fundamentals

This course provides basic theoretical and foundational principles of two- and four-cycle engines along with development of common maintenance procedures specific to trailers and marine power packages. Emphasis on basic service operations including safety, use of hand and power tools, marine hardware, service literature, and operating principles of marine power packages. Students will also obtain credit within the Mercury University system.

Credits 5

Lab Hours 3

Class Hours 4