

PAMD210L : Paramedic III

A comprehensive course of clinical rotations that focuses on patient assessments, medical theory, developing and implementing treatment plans and skills while working with preceptors in a variety of clinical settings, and affective behaviors expected of an entry level paramedic. A minimum of 225 hours is required

Credits 5

Lab Hours 0

Class Hours 0