Distance Learning

Distance Learning courses are offered in a 100% online environment using the Canvas learning management system. All competencies and knowledge presented are the same as the student would experience in a classroom-based course. A student may add a 100% online course up to the official start date of the semester. Once the semester has started a student may add only with the permission of the instructor.