

ARTS240L : Painting I

This course offers an introduction to the basic principles, media, and techniques of painting in oils and acrylics. The development of understanding color mixing, exploration of form, content and space is emphasized while working from abstract and realistic subject matters. The course synthesizes composition, creative thought, and critical thinking.

Credits 3

Lab Hours 3

Class Hours 2