CIS271L : Analyzing Software Requirements

This course teaches students to develop conceptual, logical and physical designs for a business software solution using modern software techniques and tools such as UML, SCRUM, etc. This course prepares the student for the Microsoft Certified Exam.

Credits 3
Lab Hours 2
Class Hours 2
Prerequisite Courses
CIS130L: Computer Ethics Privacy and Security